

Sonoma State University

Social Justice Week March 2 - March 7, 2020

PUBLIC WELCOME

All Events in Student Union Ballroom A (except where noted)

Program for MONDAY, MARCH 2

12:00-1:00pm

Social Justice Week Introduction and Welcome

Dr. Jerlena Griffin-Desta, Associate Vice President for Strategic Initiatives and Diversity; Dr. Maureen Buckley, Interim Dean, School of Social Sciences; Dr. Peter Phillips, Sociology Department; Dr. Diana Grant, Criminology and Criminal Justice Studies Department

1:00-2:30pm

Michael Nagler: Metta Center for Nonviolence: Nonviolent Action for Climate Change and Democracy. Film: The Third Harmony.

2:45-4:00 pm

Committee to Support an Effective IOLERO Susan Lamont: Community and Law Enforcement Relations: At the Crossroads

4:15-5:30pm

Peter Phillips: The Global Power Elite: Challenging the 1%

6:00-7:00pm

Ballet Folklorico Netzahualcoyotl, Grace De La Cruz

7:15 -9:00pm

Penny Rosenwasser, Author: Hope into Practice, Jewish women choosing justice despite our fears. In these perilous times of rising anti-Semitism and racism, deportation of immigrants, Islamophobia, misogyny, and transphobia, Penny's words are an activist's call to heal the world! Her interactive talk about her book, "Hope into Practice, Jewish women choosing justice despite our fears," is full of stories linking personal healing with social justice.